Last chance for tickets to our Together Again Dinner

Don't miss our special Together Again Dinner at the Cavalry & Guards Club on Thursday 5th May. An opportunity for alumni and former staff from across the decades to get together in glorious surroundings. Pre-dinner drinks are sponsored by Worth Society and the ticket price of £77 covers 3 courses, half a bottle of wine & coffee. The deadline for booking is Monday 25th April, so gather together fellow OW family and friends and book your ticket here now!

Special Easter Events at Worth

There's plenty to come back to Worth for this Easter! Easter Sunday Mass in the Abbey Church is at 10am and Worthian singers are invited to join an informal choir (meet at 9:30am in the Unity Room). After Mass there will be a range of activities including a contemplative Resurrection Walk to the Quiet Garden, a guided walk taking in some of the best sights of the Worth Estate, an Easter Egg Hunt, and the Worth coffee van serving refreshments and Italian Easter cake. The event is being organised by Worth Abbey Pilgrims, a new cross-community group set up by Abbot Mark. Find out more here.

Worth supporting Ukrainian Refugees

Former Worth Farm Manager, Catalin Constantin, has been bowled over by the support from the Worth Community as he has been helping Ukrainian refugees in his homeland of Romania, and sends his deep gratitude. Read his update here.

The Friends of Worth, the School's parent body have launched a project to create a Worth Community recipe book, sales of which will be used to establish a Worth Humanitarian Crisis Fund to support charities working with Ukrainian children impacted by the war. If you can offer support by way of resource or expertise (particularly proof reading, publishing and/or graphic design) please email fow@worth.org.uk
