Hearty voices sing at London Carol Service

Our annual Advent Carol Service was held last week at the beautiful Church of The Immaculate Conception, Farm Street. Fuelled by warmed mulled wine and mince pies before the service, the congregation sang more heartily than usual and listened to some magical carols sung by our very own alumni choir, supported by the Farm Street Singers. A big thank you to all who joined us.

Well done to our inaugural Debating Team

A very special new event took place at Worth recently with an Alumni vs School debating evening. The teams and judges were treated to a pre-match supper and after some very persuasive speeches and extremely polite exchanges, the School were declared this year's winners and presented with the new shield.
